About the Murder Mystery:

September, 1922. Parishioners gather for an evening service honoring the tenth anniversary of Edith Corse Evans' passing, a fellow member of the church who met her untimely end while aboard the Titanic. However, perhaps the memorial is not all the evening has in store. For those "in the know," a sneaky trip to the River Room is in store, where inhibitions and the prohibition are both kept at bay. It is only when jewels are snatched and someone winds up dead, that the evening takes a rather villainous turn...

Don't miss out on this evening of food, mystery and fun benefiting three wonderful organizations!
